

Eel Space // MDW Fair 2012

Zak Arctander
Katy Collier
Geoffrey Hamerlinck
Rebecca Schoenecker

Eel Space presents work by four artists whose work lie somewhere between magic and the subversion of capitalism. Zak Arctander's recent photographs consider a moment of experience between life and death in relation to commodities. Katy Collier submits personal meditations of everyday experience and nature. Geoffrey Hamerlinck's hand drawn animation stills are humorous takes on the commercial format, simultaenously twisted and innocent. Rebecca Schoenecker performs and presents performative objects that blur art and life, a tarot deck with deep psychic powers that she made in its entirety, and a worn object that interrogates the gaze.
